Taste

Gooseneck Vineyards' Prosecco gracefully opens with a beautiful straw color coupled with a nose of fresh citrus and whispers of tender apricot. Bubbles tickle gracefully, as prominent notes of pink grapefruit are followed by flutters of green apple. The finish is as relaxing as its label suggests: crisp, refreshing and stylish.

Story

Crafted from the finest glera grapes grown on the hills of the Treviso (Italy) area at a vineyard dedicated solely to the production the glera grape. The cuvée wine used to make this Prosecco is made in the traditional manner by a very gentle pressing followed by a cool fermentation that yields a lovely delicate style, while retaining the beautiful essence of the fruit. Its fruit driven flavor sets this bubbly apart from Spanish Cava or French Champagne.

Complements

This perfectly balanced Prosecco tastes best as an aperitif with friends. Also pairs well with salty foods, seafood, poultry, salads, mild cheeses, and delicate fruit dishes.
